UNDERSTANDING OF RESPONSIBILITY

Becoming Self-Advised is a big responsibility. In so doing, you agree that:

- You are taking sole responsibility for any and all registration decisions you make and accept all academic and financial consequences;
- You are responsible for meeting all graduation requirements, including those specific to your major, as well as for the transferability of the courses in which you choose to enroll;
- You understand failing to register for courses which are part of your degree requirements may impede or alter degree progression/completion;
- You will be held responsible for all tuition and fees incurred as a result of registration;
- You are responsible for knowing and meeting all due dates related to adding and dropping or withdrawing from courses, and the timelines for the payment of tuition and fees;
- You will comply with all applicable CWI policies and procedures.

You are aware of the tools and resources available to you as a self-advised student:

- College policies and degree requirements are found in the CWI College Catalog
- Course schedules are available online at www.cwidaho.cc and through the MyCSI portal
- General career information is available at cwidaho.myplan.com
- You have the option of requesting a faculty advisor at a later date if you decide to no longer be self-advised. Such a request, however, will not alter your responsibility for the consequences incurred while you were self-advised.

SIGN THIS WORKSHEET

I understand and agree to meet the requirements and responsibilities of being a self-advised student at CWI. I understand CWI will require me to participate in advising if my GPA falls below a 2.0. I understand I can seek advising and support and request a faculty advisor at a later time, but that such a request will not negate my responsibility for the choices made while I was self-advised.
