

Candidate Forum 2014

Candidate Forum Night

The Culture, History and Politics Department of the School of Social Science and Public Affairs is sponsoring a series of political candidate forums between now and the election in November 2014. These forums give candidates, students, faculty and the community a chance to present and discuss the critical issues in this year's election cycle. Plan now to attend and meet the candidates for state and federal offices.

Our first forum is April 15th, featuring Jim Chmelik, candidate for Lt. Governor, Idaho Attorney General Lawrence Wasden and Chris Troup, AG candidate.

ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND!!!!!!

Date: Tuesday, April 15th

Time: 5:00 - 6:30pm

Location: Micron Center, Rm 1701

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

- Acquire the information necessary to make informed decisions on Election Day
- Ask the questions you have
- Discuss the issues that are important to you
- Learn what's on the minds of other citizens from Ada and Canyon Counties
