

Emerging Scholars Nomination Form

This program exists to recognize outstanding students for their commitment to learning, demonstration of a special talent in their discipline or program and the potential to excel. Selection is based on academic integrity, innovation, and professionalism both in and outside the classroom--not primarily on academic status. Students are nominated by their instructors in academic transfer courses. Note: Nominating Faculty are expected to participate in the awards ceremony which will be held on April 27, 2017 from 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. at the NCAB Academic Building.

Please keep answers to a maximum of one single-spaced, typed page. Submit nominations by April 3, 2017. E-mail the completed Nomination Form to emergingscholars@cwidaho.cc.

1. Name and email address of nominee:
2. Name and email address of faculty member submitting nomination:
3. Are you available April 27, 2017 to attend the awards ceremony?
(Note: Attendance is mandatory for nominating faculty.)
4. Nominee's designated Academic Affairs school/course:
5. Does the student plan to enroll for 6 or more credits for the full 2017-2018 academic year?
Does the student have a GPA of 2.0 or higher?
(Note: These are criteria for eligibility.)
6. Describe the nominee's characteristics that would identify them as an Emerging Scholar.
Please describe how the student has distinguished themselves in or outside the classroom in showing exceptional promise. (maximum 300 words)
7. The Emerging Scholars award is based on academic integrity, innovation, and professionalism both in and outside the classroom and is NOT focused solely on recognizing those who are earning A's in your courses. How does the nominee meet these criteria? Is there a specific assignment or project where these criteria have been demonstrated? (maximum 300 words)
8. Provide any additional information you would like the selection committee to know about the student's qualifications for this award. (maximum 300 words)

Thank you for nominating your student! We will announce winners by April 13, 2013.
